Preview: Security firm TRM Labs attributed the theft of over 18,000 Bitcoin (approximately 1.4 billion USD) to the North Korean-linked threat actor group TraderTraitor. The stolen cryptocurrency was distributed across 19 wallets, with 17 wallets each containing exactly 1,000 Bitcoin. As of the report, none of the stolen assets have been moved. The difficulty in directly blocking Bitcoin on the blockchain makes recovery of the stolen assets challenging.
